

ICCCSSO—List serve summary of responses—Handling Student Illnesses on Campus
Question: How is your college handling student illnesses? Do you have a policy or practice?
(Additional comments provided are shared in the “other” category)

September 2009

Colleges Responding	Student Policy	Other
Oakton	Yes, communicable disease policy listed in the student handbook.	Shares a document written by the Faculty Senate with recommendations and best practices for students and faculty.
Triton	Yes, Board Policy for students
John Woods	Yes, Board Policy for students and employees combined
Joliet Junior College	Student policy under revision	Board Policy for employees
Lakeland College	Yes, Board Policy for students and employees combined	Separate policy for employees
Black Hawk	Yes, Board Policy for students and employees combined
Harper	No policy currently in place Currently communicating safe health practices from key sources, CDC and Cook County Dept. of Public Health. Campus Health Service Office monitoring impact to the college community.	Response team has been activated to monitor H1N1 situation. Special policy considerations are in place should an out break occur.
Kankakee	No Policy currently in place  Currently communicating best practices for health management and safety to students using CDC and Kankakee County Dept. of Health.	Board Policy for employees
Sauk Valley	No policy currently in place
Elgin	Yes, Board Policy for students

